

Co Wicklow PPN Members Meeting June 2021

Combating Racism and Xenophobia

Anyone either experiencing or witnessing a racist incident can report it to the Gardai, and offenders can be prosecuted.

Ring your local Garda station and report the incident. You can also request support from a specially trained Ethnic Liaison Officer

Co Wicklow PPN Members Meeting June 2021

Combating Racism and Xenophobia

If you have experienced discrimination in the workplace, you can report it to the Workplace Relations Commission.

You can fill out the e-complaint form on the Workplace Relations Commission website, www.workplacerelations.ie.

Co Wicklow PPN Members Meeting June 2021

Combating Racism and Xenophobia

If you wish to report racist incidents confidentially, the Irish Network against Racism collects reports through www.ireport.ie

Fill out the form at www.ireport.ie. Even if you have already reported it through other channels, you can report it here, to allow the Irish Network Against Racism to monitor reports of racist incidents in a variety of different settings.

Co Wicklow PPN Members Meeting June 2021

Combating Racism and Xenophobia

A fuller list of how you can report racism or discrimination is provided by the Office for the Promotion of Migrant Integration

http://www.integration.ie/en/ISEC/Pages/Mig_Info_Reporting_Racism